

SOCIETY

MRS. A. G. M. ROBERTSON HONORS MISS ELDER

Miss Elder of Hilo was the honor guest at an informal tea on Thursday afternoon of this week. The guests brought their sewing baskets and a couple of very pleasant hours were passed. Delicious refreshments were served, and Mrs. Robertson favored her guests with several songs much to their delight. Mrs. Robertson has just returned from Hilo, where she was for a month the house-guest of the George Marshalls. Mrs. Robertson's beautiful voice was heard on many occasions to the great enjoyment of her listeners. Mrs. Robertson's guests were Miss Elder, the guest of honor; Mrs. James D. Dougherty, Mrs. William B. Lymer, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. H. Baleson, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Theima K. Murphy, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Abby Buchanan, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Miss Helen Pratt and Miss Edith Williams.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carter left on the Ventura for a mainland visit.

Maj. and Mrs. J. E. Kavanagh left on the Ventura for the mainland.

Mrs. William Campbell will be a tea hostess on Wednesday of next week.

Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson will be a luncheon hostess on Tuesday of next week.

Miss Kate M. Atherton will be a home-coming passenger on Tuesday's Lurline.

Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston left on Thursday evening for a week's stay at Kilauea.

Miss Helen Center has invitations out for a tea on Friday of next week at her Waikiki home.

Mrs. E. E. Bodge leaves on the 20th of next month for a three months' visit to San Francisco.

Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson has asked a company of guests in to play bridge on Friday of next week.

Mr. Platt Cooke has invitations out for a dance on Monday evening of next week at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gere left on Friday evening for Kona, where they plan to spend a month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCandless, accompanied by Mrs. Barnes, are expected home on the 6th of October.

Mrs. Nixon and her daughter, Miss Enid Nixon, left this week for their home in Amador County, California.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Balch are booked to leave here on the 6th of September for a three months' visit to the mainland.

Miss Tessa A. Rush, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson, left for her California home on the Ventura.

Danish Consul and Mrs. Christian Hedemann and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hedemann leave on Wednesday's boat for New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, after three weeks in the Shingle Manoa mountain home, will return home on Tuesday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay will be home arrivals on Tuesday of next week. Much in the way of entertainment is planned in their honor.

Mrs. Benjamin Watkinson of Schofield Barracks is giving a card party on Tuesday to meet Mrs. Samuel Hedekin and Miss Julia Hedekin.

Miss L. Curtner and Miss L. Curtner, who have been here as the guests of Mrs. Makea Kipling, left on the Ventura for their California home.

Miss Nora Swanzy, who has been on Kauai visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Putman, will be a home-coming passenger on the Kilauea tomorrow morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould will next week be the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle at their Waikiki home. They will be with the Castles a week or ten days.

Next week's steamer from Maui will bring Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Hattie Lucas, Miss Violet Makee and Miss Mary

Miss Helen Ramona Girvin, whose engagement to Mr. Henry D. M. Cobb is announced today by her mother, Mrs. Sara Girvin. Miss Girvin is a very pretty girl of the blonde type and a great social favorite.

Lucas, who have been on Maui for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane and her small children will arrive home in the steamer tomorrow morning from Hilo after a month at the Volcano House.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead and Miss Gladys Halstead left on the Ventura for the mainland. Miss Gladys will go to Mills College to finish her education.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hind are in town for a year, having taken the Davies house in Green street. The Hind girls will be here on Saturday and much in the way of entertainment is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay and Mr. Ernest Gay, who will arrive on Monday, have invited a company of guests for Tuesday evening at a pot supper and dance at their lovely Waialea home, Kalihi Valley.

Miss Lois Brundred has been the recipient of many messages and boxes of flowers, having been ill in the hospital for several days suffering from an acute attack of ear trouble. However, she is expected to be back in the Tenney home within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brash and family have returned home after an extended trip throughout the mainland, arriving on the Matsonia last Tuesday. Mr. Brash is manager of Whitney & Marsh, Ltd. They will be at home to their friends at their residence, 1520 Keeaumoku street, next week.

Miss Grace Power, the milliner, has returned from the mainland after a combined business and pleasure trip. She brings back a large assortment of smart things which will interest the society women of the islands.

Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson has asked a company of guests for next Monday afternoon at her Schofield quarters to honor Mrs. Samuel Heedner and Miss Julia Heedner of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, who are visitors in Hawaii.

Mrs. Samuel Heedner and her daughter, Miss Julia Heedner, of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, are at present guests at the Moana Hotel. Next week they will take up their residence during their two months' visit here in the Rudolf Buchly home, Levers road, Waikiki. Mrs. Heedner and her daughter motored all the way from Philadelphia to Seattle, where they took the steamer, arriving here two weeks ago. They brought their car with them and have many friends in Honolulu.

Capt. and Mrs. C. J. Taylor entertained on Monday evening for their house-guest, Miss Francis Heric of Walla, Walla, Wash. The guests assembled at the Taylors' home on Saratoga road and then proceeded to the beach for a very pleasant moonlight swim. A Welsh rarebit supper was then served after which Miss Heric entertained with a number of very pleasing songs. The guests were Lieut. and Mrs. J. C. Thorn, Lieut. and Mrs. R. A. Wheeler, Miss Kithley, the Misses Christine and Katherine Raymond, Miss Heric, Lieut. A. B. Lyman, Lieut. F. L. Perigo and Lieut. W. E. R. Coveil.

Dr. and Mrs. William Seaman of the naval station, Pearl Harbor, have invited guests to a dancing party on Monday evening of next week, honoring Miss Geraldine Boush, who, with her father and mother, Admiral and Mrs. C. J. Boush, leave shortly for the mainland.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FORT SHAFTER, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell entertained at tea at the Country Club for Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett of India. Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Howell Clinton.

Capt. and Mrs. John Randolph entertained informally at dinner on Sunday in their home in the main garrison for Capt. and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker had as their dinner guests Saturday evening Capt. and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester and Lieut. and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones.

Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan entertained most informally at a dinner in their quarters in the main garrison on Monday evening.

Miss Gertrude Malone, formerly of the Fort Shafter colony, left West Point, where she was the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Manly, July 27, to spend the remainder of her vacation in Michigan, from whence she will return to Bryn Mawr, where she has been a student for the past three years.

The many friends of Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, who has been a patient in the department hospital for the past week, will be delighted to know she is now convalescing, but they will greatly regret the fact that on her recovery she will go to Schofield Barracks, where Capt. Abraham is now stationed with the 32nd. Mrs. Abraham has been one of the most popular of the younger matrons and will be greatly missed in the social life of the garrison.

Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran entertained very informally at a dinner on Tuesday for Lieut. and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones.

Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrew were hosts at a very pretty dinner at their home in the cantonment last Friday. The centerpiece, consisting of African daisies intermingled with insidenhair fern, was most gracefully arranged. Covers were laid for Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg was a passenger on the Manoa when it sailed from Honolulu August 15. Mrs. Hardigg will visit her family in West Virginia, where she expects to make a two months' stay.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker entertained very informally on Wednesday evening at dinner.

The post bridge club met as usual on Tuesday to enjoy an evening at cards. Mrs. William E. Hunt was hostess and displayed most excellent taste in the selection of a prize, which was an exquisite cloisonne plate. Mr. Ralph C. Holliday, holding the highest score for the evening, was awarded the prize. Those playing were wishes to announce that during her absence until October 1 her dancing partner, Mr. Charles Ransford, will conduct all classes and private lessons in I. O. O. F. Hall. Office hours, Young Hotel, 9 to 10 a. m.

Madame Lester

Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Capt. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Capt. and Mrs. Robert H. Peck, Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Miss Ann Pearson, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Witsell, Mr. Adrian K. Polhemus, Madame Cochran, Mrs. Robert H. Pearson, Lieut.-Col. William Weigel, Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday were dinner guests of Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell Wednesday evening.

Lieut. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett entertained at dinner Wednesday evening. A bowl of shaded pink asters graced the center of the daintily appointed table, where covers were placed for Mrs. Deems and Miss Deems of Honolulu, Lieut. Frank A. Sloan and Lieut. and Mrs. Bennett.

Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum's many friends will be glad to know that after an illness lasting over three weeks she is again able to enjoy the social activities of the garrison.

Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, with her little son and maid, has been spending the week with her parents, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, in their home in the post proper.

Jimmie Bell, the youngest son of Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell, who was so unfortunate as to break his arm when he fell from a tree on Tuesday, is able to be out and play with his friends, even though his arm is in a sling.

Those from the post attending the card party given by Mrs. James McRae were Mrs. Dashiell, Miss Ann Pearson, Mrs. Robert H. Pearson, Mrs. Otto B. Rosenbaum, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum and Mrs. James E. Bell.

Miss Ann Pearson and Mrs. Willis were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baird on Sunday at their home at Waikiki.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the tea given by Lieut. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler Thursday afternoon when they entertained in their home in the cantonment for Mr. and Mrs. Keithly and Miss Keithly, the parents and sister of Mrs. Wheeler. The decorations, which were most profuse, were snapdragons, asters and gladioli. A large centerpiece of the latter graced the daintily appointed table. Mrs. John Sullivan poured tea and Mrs. Robert Raymond served ices. Mrs. Claire Bennett and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood presided at the punch bowl. The guests were entertained most delightfully, both by the musical concert given by the 2nd Infantry band and also by the fascinating instrumental and vocal music, with its tropical charms, of the Hawaiian orchestra. Those calling during the afternoon were Col. Daniel Lane Howell, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Robert R. Raymond, Lieut.-Col. Weigel, Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Robert H. Pearson, Miss Ann Pearson, Madame Cochran, Madame Pearson, Capt. and Mrs. Otto B. Rosenbaum, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Capt. and Mrs. Robert Peck, Chaplain and Mrs. William Reese Scott, Mrs. Witsell, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrew, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Hobley, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker, Lieut. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton, Capt. and Mrs. Charles J. Taylor, Miss Garrett, Lieut. and Mrs. Claire Bennett, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Crystal, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Miss Katherine Lenihan, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Miss Raymond, Miss Katherine Raymond, Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Eleanor Scott, Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman, Lieut. William F. R. Coveil, Charles Lyman, Lieut. Frank A. Sloan, Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus and others.

Quite a party will leave the post today for a visit to Hilo to see the many wonderful beauties of Kilauea. Those comprising the party will be Maj. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Robert H. Pearson, Miss Ann Pearson, Madame Cochran and Miss Louise Cochran.

A HINT TO HOUSEWIVES.

At a recent pathological congress in Paris it was brought out that the best cure for a bad tempered husband is to fill him with carrots, while cabbage and cauliflower make people vulgar and stupid. Editors, judges and other superior persons should eat potatoes as they develop the reasoning faculties, but over-indulgence will produce laziness. Green peas produce flirting propensities in girls who eat them. Altogether the subject proved an interesting one.

A pinch of salt in the whites of eggs will make them beat stiff more quickly.

The dinner is not complete without your favorite flavor or

Velvet Ice Cream

Order it today in the following flavors:

Almond Nut	Butter Scotch
Mixed Nut	Strawberry
Lemon	Tutti-Frutti
Chocolate	Vanilla
Cherry and Orange Sherbets

Honolulu Dairymen's Association

1542

4676

Miss Jeffs Announces her return from New York

New Fall Gowns, Cloaks, Skirts, Waists, etc., comprising a part of her personal selections, have already arrived --ready for Inspection

Jeffs

FASHION CO. INC.

Fort at Beretania

A "quality" Showing of Low Shoes

All of the little refinements that give charm and smartness to the new pumps are shown in this new "ELITE" model in patent colt pumps for ladies which came on the Matsonia. Full Louis XV heel. Pair, $6.50.

Manufacturer's Shoe Store

Fort Street

At the Seaside

The sun and burning winds of the shore will ruin the hardest complexion. Protect your skin by using

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

If you are now troubled with tan or sunburn—use it. This troubleless condition will disappear at once, it beautifies the complexion instantly with a refined, soft, pearly-white appearance. Try it at once.

Send 10c. for trial size

F. T. HOPKINS & SON
17 Great Jones Street New York City